

Hospital surge level over time in Michigan

- During the most recent case increases, hospital systems across the state reported high surge levels (red), indicating that external surge plans were implemented
- High surge in all regions followed cases crossing 150 daily cases per million
- Hospitals in 3 MERC regions reported red surge levels over the Fall/Winter wave, and 7/8 reported orange or red

